COURT OF APPEALS, DIVISION II
OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

In re Post-Sentence Review of:

MICHAEL THOMPSON,

Respondent.

DEPARTMENT OF
CORRECTIONS' POST-
SENTENCE PETITION

The Department of Corrections (Department or DOC), petitions the Court pursuant to RCW 9.94A.585(7) for review of the sentence imposed in State of Washington v. Michael Thompson, Clark County Superior Court Cause No. 17-1-00160-1. The sentencing court imposed prison plus community custody for Thompson's conviction of attempted failure to register as a sex offender. However, attempted failure to register is not a sex offense or a crime against persons, therefore it does not qualify for community custody under RCW 9.94A.701.

The DOC requests that the Court remand this case to the Superior Court for correction of the judgment and sentence.

I. ISSUE

Was the superior court without authority to order community custody for attempted failure to register, where RCW 9.94A.701 only authorizes community custody for the completed offense?

II. STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On March 31, 2017, Thompson pleaded guilty to one count of attempted failure to register as a sex offender with two or more prior convictions. Exhibit 1, Judgment and Sentence, State of Washington v. Michael Thompson, Clark County Superior Court Cause No. 17-1-00160-1. The trial court (the Honorable Gregory M. Gonzalez) sentenced Thompson to 32.25 months confinement and 27.75 months of community custody. Id. at 5-6.

On April 21, 2017, the Department sent an email to the parties requesting an amended judgment and sentence because “attempted failure to register” is not eligible for community custody under RCW 9.94A.701. Exhibit 2, Email from Department of Corrections. Clark County took the position that the office believes attempted failure to register is a Class C sex offense under RCW 9.94A.030(47)(a)(iv) and/or (a)(v). Id.

On May 30, 2017, Counsel for the Department wrote a letter to the trial court, the prosecutor, and defense counsel. Exhibit 3, Correspondence from Attorney General’s Office. The letter explained that following a review of RCW 9.94A.030(47), RCW 9.94A.701 and RCW 9.94A.501, it seems that attempted failure to register is not a “sex offense” for which community custody is authorized. Id. Moreover, failure to register is not treated the same as a completed failure to register.

Therefore, community custody is not an authorized punishment for that offense. Id.

On June 20, 2017, Counsel sent an email to the prosecutor, defense counsel, and the Court following up on the correspondence sent out on May 30, 2017. Exhibit 4, Email from Assistant Attorney General. The prosecuting attorney responded indicating both the state and defense take the position that community custody for attempted failure to register is legally correct. Exhibit 5, Email from Clark County to Assistant Attorney General. In total, counsel for the Department communicated with the Clark County prosecuting attorney several times via email and once by telephone regarding each party's respective legal positions. Exhibit 6, Declaration of Mandy L. Rose. Counsel for the Department and the prosecuting attorney were unable to reach a consensus on the correct legal analysis. Id.

III. CERTIFICATION

The Department certifies that it made all reasonable efforts to resolve this dispute at the superior court level. Despite the best of intentions, counsel for the Department and the prosecuting attorney discussed the legal arguments supporting each position and were unable to reach an agreement on the correct interpretation of the statutes in question. Exhibit 4; Exhibit 5; Exhibit 6.

RCW 9.94A.585(7) does not require formal filing of a petition or motion in the trial court. Sentence of Chatman, 59 Wn. App. 258, 264, 796 P.2d 755 (1990).

IV. STANDARD OF REVIEW

This case involves only legal issues. The Court reviews purely legal issues de novo. RAP 16.18; Fluke Corp. v. Hartford Accident & Indem. Co., 145 Wn.2d 137, 143, 34 P.3d 809 (2001).

V. ARGUMENT

A. Attempted Failure to Register is not a Sex Offense or Crime Against Persons, Thus Community Custody is not Authorized under RCW 9.94A.701

A trial court may only impose a sentence authorized by statute. In re Postsentence Review of Leach, 161 Wn.2d 180, 184, 163 P.3d 782, 784 (2007). RCW 9.94A.701 sets out the criteria for a court's imposition of community custody terms. Depending on the circumstances, the completed crime of failure to register may qualify under RCW 9.94A.701(1) or .701(3) for either a three-year or a one-year term of community custody:

(1) If an offender is sentenced to the custody of the department for one of the following crimes, the court shall, in addition to the other terms of the sentence, sentence the offender to community custody for three years:

(a) A sex offense not sentenced under RCW 9.94A.507 ...

(3) A court shall, in addition to the other terms of the sentence, sentence an offender to community custody for one year when the court sentences the person to the custody of the department for:

(a) Any crime against persons under RCW 9.94A.411(2);

(d) A felony violation of RCW 9A.44.132(1) (failure to register) that is the offender's first violation for a felony failure to register.

Mr. Thompson has two prior convictions for failure to register as a sex offender from 2013. Exhibit 1, at Appendix 2.2. As a result of Mr. Thompson's prior convictions, subsection (3)(d) expressly does not apply. Thus unless "attempted" failure to register is a sex offense or a crime against a person, RCW 9.94A.701 does not authorize the superior court to impose a term of community custody for that crime. As discussed below, "attempted failure to register" is neither "a sex offense," nor a "crime against a person", consequently subsections (1)(a) and (3)(a) do not apply.

1. Attempted Failure to Register is not a Sex Offense for Purposes of RCW 9.94A.701(1)(a)

The relevant parts of RCW 9.94A.030(47) defines a "sex offense" as follows:

- (a)(i) A felony that is a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW other than RCW 9A.44.132;
- (ii) A violation of RCW 9A.64.020;
- (iii) A felony that is a violation of chapter 9.68A RCW other than RCW 9.68A.080;

- (iv) A felony that is, under chapter 9A.28 RCW, a criminal attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit such crimes; or
- (v) A felony violation of RCW 9A.44.132(1) (failure to register as a sex offender) if the person has been convicted of violating RCW 9A.44.132(1) (failure to register as a sex offender) or 9A.44.130 prior to June 10, 2010, on at least one prior occasion; . . .

While the statute includes “attempts” for “such crimes” listed in RCW 9.94A.030(47)(a)(i) through (iii), the crime of failure to register by itself is not “such crimes.” See Jepson v. Department of Labor and Industries, 89 Wn.2d 394, 404, 573 P.2d 10 (1977) (The word “such” in a statute refers back to and identifies something of like kind previously spoken of) (emphasis added). The subsection for “attempted” crimes comes before the subsection for felony failure to register with a prior conviction. Thus, failure to register by itself is explicitly excluded from the definition of a sex offense in RCW 9.94A.030(47)(a)(i)-(iv). If “failure to register” by itself is not a sex offense in 9.94A.030(47)(a)(i)-(iv), then “attempted failure to register” by itself cannot be a sex offense because it is not “such crimes.”

While a completed offense of failure to register may meet the criteria in 9.94A.030(47)(a)(v) if the offender has a prior conviction for failure to register, an attempted failure to register does not meet the statutory definition of a “sex offense.” The Washington Supreme Court has held that an inchoate or anticipatory offense (attempt, solicitation, conspiracy) is not the same as a violation of the completed crime. See In re Hopkins, 137 Wn.2d 897, 976 P.2d 616 (1999); In re Leach, 161 Wn.2d 180, 163 P.3d 782 (2007).

In Hopkins, the Washington Supreme Court considered an analogous issue of statutory interpretation of whether a conviction for “solicitation to deliver cocaine” constituted “an offense under RCW 69.50” so as to double the statutory maximum sentence. Hopkins, 137 Wn.2d at 899-900. The court held the anticipatory offense of “solicitation” to deliver cocaine was not a violation under the drug statute but was instead a violation under RCW 9A.28.010. Id.

In Leach, the Washington Supreme Court applied reasoning similar to Hopkins, and expressly held that an attempted crime is not the same as the completed crime for purposes of deciding whether a statute authorized community custody. The Washington Supreme Court held that although the crime of assault was a “crime against persons” authorizing the superior court to impose a term of community custody under former RCW 9.94A.715, the crime of “attempted assault” was not a “crime against persons,” and did not authorize a term of community custody under the statute. Leach, 161 Wn.2d at 184-88. The Washington Supreme Court noted that the Legislature had expressly included certain attempted crimes as eligible for community custody (e.g., attempted class A felonies in former RCW 9.94A.715 and attempted drug offenses in former RCW 9.94A.545), but had omitted other types of attempted crimes. Id.

As in Leach, both the community custody statute applicable here, RCW 9.94A.701, and the statute authorizing the Department to supervise community custody, RCW 9.94A.501, include the completed crime of failure to register. However, neither statute expressly includes the anticipatory crime of “attempted failure to register.” The absence of the anticipatory crime of “attempted failure to register” indicates the Legislature did not intend to include this particular attempted crime. This exclusion is especially apparent since the Legislature did specifically authorize community custody for other types of attempted crimes. See, e.g., RCW 9.94A.702(1)(d) (authorizing community custody for an attempted drug crime).

It is significant when interpreting the relevant provisions of RCW 9.94A.701, and RCW 9.94A.501, to consider that the crime of “attempted failure to register” is arguably not even a crime in Washington. Criminal attempt requires that a person “does any act which is a substantial step towards the commission of that crime.” See RCW 9A.28.020(1) (emphasis added). “Mere preparation” is not sufficient to be guilty of an attempted crime. State v. Workman, 90 Wn.2d 443, 449, 584 P.2d 382 (1978). Failure to register is an act of omission, one either registers as a sex offender or they do not. See State v. Williams, 47,242 (La. App. 2 Cir. 7/18/12); 103 So. 3d 412, 414.

In Washington, a person commits the crime of failure to register if the person “has a duty to register” and “knowingly fails to comply.” See RCW 9A.44.132(1). Thus, similar to the discussion in Williams, in Washington one either registers as a sex offender or does not. “Attempted failure to register” is illogical because the State does not have to prove the person intended not to register. The state must only prove the person knew of the duty to register, and did not register. See In re Richey, 162 Wn.2d 865, 175 P.3d 585 (2008) (Holding that crime of “attempted felony murder” does not exist and burdens the State with proving defendant intended to commit a crime that does not have an intent element).

The Legislature expressly excluded “attempted failure to register” from the definition of a sex offense. Thus, the Superior Court lacks authority to order community custody pursuant to RCW 9.94A.701(1)(a).

2. Attempted Failure to Register is Not a “Crime Against Persons” for Purposes of RCW 9.94A.701(3)(a)

RCW 9.94A.701(3)(a) provides that a one-year term of community custody is required for offenders convicted of “[a]ny crime against persons under RCW 9.94A.411(2),” assuming that crime does not fall under RCW 9.94A.701(1) (three-year term for sex offenses not sentenced under RCW 9.94A.507 or serious violent offenses) or RCW 9.94A.701(2) (18-month term for violent offenses that are not serious violent offenses).

The completed crime of failure to register is not included among the statutory enumeration of crimes against persons. See RCW 9.94A.411(2). The statutory list is the exclusive list of offenses that qualify as crimes against persons, and courts are not free to add to the list. See In re Postsentence Review of Leach, 161 Wn.2d 180, 185-86, 163 P.3d 782 (2007). See also State v. Arlene’s Flowers, Inc., 187 Wn.2d 804, 829, 389 P.3d 543 (2017) (When faced with a question of statutory interpretation, we “must not add words where the legislature has chosen not to include them”). It is the Legislature’s prerogative to add to the list, and if the particular crime is not listed in RCW 9.94A.411, the crime is not a “crime against persons.” Leach, 161 Wn.2d. at 186-87. Moreover, even if the completed crime of failure to register were on that list, an attempted crime is not treated the same as a completed crime for purposes of the crimes against persons list in RCW 9.94A.411. Id. at 185-89 (attempted second-degree assault of a child is not a “crime against persons” and therefore not eligible for community custody); see also Section (A)(1) supra.

In short, attempted failure to register is not a “crime against persons.” Thus, attempted failure to register is not a qualifying offense under RCW 9.94A.701(3)(a) and the Superior Court lacks authority to order community custody.

VI. CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, the Court should grant this petition and remand this matter to the Superior Court for correction of the judgment and sentence.

- ☐ Additional current offense sentencing data is attached in Appendix 2.3.

For violent offenses, most serious offenses, or armed offenders, recommended sentencing agreements or plea agreements are ☐ attached ☐ as follows: _____.

2.4 ☐ Exceptional Sentence. The court finds substantial and compelling reasons that justify an exceptional sentence:

☐ below the standard range for Count(s) _____.

Felony Judgment and Sentence (FJS) (Prison)
(Sex Offense and Kidnapping of a Minor Offense)
(RCW 9.94A.500, .505)(WPF CR 84.0400 (07/2015))

- ☐ above the standard range for Count(s) _____.
- ☐ The defendant and state stipulate that justice is best served by imposition of the exceptional sentence above the standard range and the court finds the exceptional sentence furthers and is consistent with the interests of justice and the purposes of the sentencing reform act.
- ☐ Aggravating factors were ☐ stipulated by the defendant, ☐ found by the court after the defendant waived jury trial, ☐ found by jury, by special interrogatory.
- ☐ within the standard range for Count(s) _____ but served consecutively to Count(s) _____. Findings of fact and conclusions of law are attached in Appendix 2.4. ☐ Jury's special interrogatory is attached. The Prosecuting Attorney ☐ did ☐ did not recommend a similar sentence.
- ☐ In the case of more than one aggravating factor, the Court finds that the same sentence would be imposed if any one of the aggravating factors is not upheld on appeal.

2.5 Ability to Pay Legal Financial Obligations. The court has considered the total amount owing, the defendant's past, present, and future ability to pay legal financial obligations, including the defendant's financial resources and the likelihood that the defendant's status will change. The court finds:

- ☐ That the defendant has the ability to pay the legal financial obligations imposed herein. RCW 9.94A.753.
- ☐ That the defendant is presently indigent but is anticipated to be able to pay financial obligations in the future. RCW 9.94A.753.
- ☒ That the defendant is indigent and disabled and is not anticipated to be able to pay financial obligations in the future. RCW 9.94A.753.
- ☐ Other: _____ RCW 9.94A.753.
- ☐ The following extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate. (RCW 9.94A.753):

- ☐ The defendant has the present means to pay costs of incarceration. RCW 9.94A.760.

2.6 ☐ Felony Firearm Offender Registration. The defendant committed a felony firearm offense as defined in RCW 9.41.010.

- ☐ The court considered the following factors:
- ☐ the defendant's criminal history.
 - ☐ whether the defendant has previously been found not guilty by reason of insanity of any offense in this state or elsewhere.
 - ☐ evidence of the defendant's propensity for violence that would likely endanger persons.
 - ☐ other: _____
- ☐ The court decided the defendant ☐ should ☐ should not register as a felony firearm offender.

III. Judgment

3.1 The defendant is guilty of the Counts and Charges listed in Paragraph 2.1 and Appendix 2.1.

3.2 ☐ The court dismisses Counts _____ in the charging document.

IV. Sentence and Order

It is ordered:

4.1 Confinement. The court sentences the defendant to total confinement as follows:

- (a) Confinement. RCW 9.94A.589. A term of total confinement in the custody of the Department of Corrections (DOC):

32.25 months on Count 01

☐ The confinement time on Count(s) _____ contain(s) a mandatory minimum term of _____.

☐ The confinement time on Count _____ includes _____ months as enhancement for ☐ firearm ☐ deadly weapon ☐ sexual motivation ☐ VUCSA in a protected zone ☐ manufacture of methamphetamine with juvenile present ☐ sexual conduct with a child for a fee.

Actual number of months of total confinement ordered is: 32.25

All counts shall be served concurrently, except for the portion of those counts for which there is an enhancement as set forth above at Section 2.3, and except for the following counts which shall be served consecutively: _____

This sentence shall run consecutively with the sentence in the following cause number(s) (see RCW 9.94A.589(3)): _____

Confinement shall commence immediately unless otherwise set forth here: _____

- (b) Confinement. RCW 9.94A.507 (Sex Offenses only): The court orders the following term of confinement in the custody of the DOC:

Count 01 minimum term _____ maximum term Statutory Maximum

- (c) Confinement. RCW 10.95.030 (Aggravated murder and under age 18.) The court orders the following:

Count _____ minimum term: _____ maximum term: Life

- (d) Credit for Time Served: The defendant shall receive credit for eligible time served prior to sentencing if that confinement was solely under this cause number. RCW 9.94A.505. The jail shall compute time served.

- (e) ☐ Work Ethic Program. RCW 9.94A.690, RCW 72.09.410. The court finds that the defendant is eligible and is likely to qualify for work ethic program. The court recommends that the defendant serve the sentence at a work ethic program. Upon completion of work ethic program, the defendant shall be released on community custody for any remaining time of total confinement, subject to the conditions in Section 4.2. Violation of the conditions of community custody may result in a return to total confinement for remaining time of confinement.

4.2 Community Custody. (To determine which offenses are eligible for or required for community placement or community custody see RCW 9.94A.701)

(A) The defendant shall be on community placement or community custody for the longer of:

- (1) the period of early release. RCW 9.94A.728(1)(2); or
(2) the period imposed by the court, as follows:

Count(s) _____, 36 months for Serious Violent Offenses

Count(s) _____, 18 months for Violent Offenses

Count(s) _____, 12 months (for crimes against a person, drug offenses, or offenses involving the unlawful possession of a firearm by a street gang member or associate)
Count(s) 01, 27.75 months, RCW 9.94A.701(9)

(Sex offenses, only) For count(s) _____, sentenced under RCW 9.94A.507, for any period of time the defendant is released from total confinement before the expiration of the statutory maximum.

The total time of incarceration and community supervision/custody shall not exceed the statutory maximum for the crime.

(B) While on community custody, the defendant shall: (1) report to and be available for contact with the assigned community corrections officer as directed; (2) work at DOC-approved education, employment and/or community restitution (service); (3) notify DOC of any change in defendant's address or employment; (4) not consume controlled substances except pursuant to lawfully issued prescriptions; (5) not unlawfully possess controlled substances while on community custody; (6) not own, use, or possess firearms or ammunition; (7) pay supervision fees as determined by DOC; (8) perform affirmative acts as required by DOC to confirm compliance with the orders of the court; (9) for sex offenses, submit to electronic monitoring if imposed by DOC; and (10) abide by any additional conditions imposed by DOC under RCW 9.94A.704 and .706. The defendant's residence location and living arrangements are subject to the prior approval of DOC while on community custody. For sex offenders sentenced under RCW 9.94A.709, the court may extend community custody up to the statutory maximum term of the sentence.

The court orders that during the period of supervision the defendant shall:

- ☐ not possess or consume alcohol.
- ☐ have no contact with: _____
- ☐ remain ☐ within ☐ outside of a specified geographical boundary, to wit: _____
- ☐ not reside within 880 feet of the facilities or grounds of a public or private school (community protection zone). RCW 9.94A.030(8).
- ☐ participate in an education program about the negative costs of prostitution.
- ☐ participate in the following crime-related treatment or counseling services: _____
- ☐ undergo an evaluation for treatment for ☐ domestic violence ☐ chemical dependency ☐ mental health ☐ anger management, and fully comply with all recommended treatment. _____
- ☐ comply with the following crime-related prohibitions: _____
- ☒ Other conditions:
Do not commit any criminal law violations. Register as required as a sex offender.

(C) For sentences imposed under RCW 9.94A.507, the Indeterminate Sentence Review Board may impose other conditions (including electronic monitoring if DOC so recommends). In an emergency, DOC may impose other conditions for a period not to exceed seven working days.

Court Ordered Treatment: If any court orders mental health or chemical dependency treatment, the defendant must notify DOC and the defendant must release treatment information to DOC for the duration of incarceration and supervision. RCW 9.94A.562.

(D) If the defendant committed the above crime(s) while under age 18 and is sentenced to more than 20 years of confinement:

- (i) As long as the defendant's conviction is not for aggravated first degree murder or certain sex crimes, and the defendant has not been convicted of a crime committed after he or she turned 18 or committed a disqualifying serious infraction as defined by DOC in the 12 months before the petition is filed, the defendant may petition the Indeterminate Sentence Review Board (Board) for early release after the defendant has served 20 years.
- (ii) If the defendant is released early because the petition was granted or by other action of the Sentence Review Board, the defendant will be subject to community custody under the supervision of the DOC for a period of time determined by the Board, up to the length of the court-imposed term of incarceration. The defendant will be required to comply with any conditions imposed by the Board.
- (iii) If the defendant violates the conditions of community custody, the Board may return the defendant to confinement for up to the remainder of the court-imposed term of incarceration.

4.3a Legal Financial Obligations: The defendant shall pay to the clerk of this court:

V. Notices and Signatures

5.1 Collateral Attack on Judgment. If you wish to petition or move for collateral attack on this Judgment and Sentence, including but not limited to any personal restraint petition, state habeas corpus petition, motion to vacate judgment, motion to withdraw guilty plea, motion for new trial or motion to arrest judgment, you must do so within one year of the final judgment in this matter, except as provided for in RCW 10.73.100. RCW 10.73.090.

5.2 Length of Supervision. If you committed your offense prior to July 1, 2000, you shall remain under the court's jurisdiction and the supervision of the Department of Corrections for a period up to 10 years from the date of sentence or release from confinement, whichever is longer, to assure payment of all legal financial obligations unless the court extends the criminal judgment an additional 10 years. If you committed your offense on or after July 1, 2000, the court shall retain jurisdiction over you, for the purpose of your compliance with payment of the legal financial obligations, until you have completely satisfied your obligation, regardless of the statutory maximum for the crime. RCW 9.94A.760 and RCW 9.94A.505(5). The clerk of the court has authority to collect unpaid legal financial obligations at any time while you remain under the jurisdiction of the court for purposes of your legal financial obligations. RCW 9.94A.760(4) and RCW 9.94A.753(4).

5.3 Notice of Income-Withholding Action. If the court has not ordered an immediate notice of payroll deduction in Section 4.1, you are notified that the Department of Corrections (DOC) or the clerk of the court may issue a notice of payroll deduction without notice to you if you are more than 30 days past due in monthly payments in an amount equal to or greater than the amount payable for one month. RCW 9.94A.7602. Other income-withholding action under RCW 9.94A.760 may be taken without further notice. RCW 9.94A.7606.

5.4 Community Custody Violation.

(a) If you are subject to a violation hearing and DOC finds that you committed the violation, you may receive a sanction of up to 30 days of confinement. RCW 9.94A.633(1).

(b) If you have not completed your maximum term of total confinement and you are subject to a violation hearing and DOC finds that you committed the violation, DOC may return you to a state correctional facility to serve up to the remaining portion of your sentence. RCW 9.94A.633(2)(a).

5.5a Firearms. You may not own, use or possess any firearm, and under federal law any firearm or ammunition, unless your right to do so is restored by the court in which you are convicted or the superior court in Washington State where you live, and by a federal court if required. You must immediately surrender any concealed pistol license. (The clerk of the court shall forward a copy of the defendant's driver's license, identicard, or comparable identification to the Department of Licensing along with the date of conviction or commitment.) RCW 9.41.040 and RCW 9.41.047.

5.5b ☐ Felony Firearm Offender Registration. The defendant is required to register as a felony firearm offender. The specific registration requirements are in the "Felony Firearm Offender Registration" attachment.

5.6 Sex and Kidnapping Offender Registration Laws of 2010, ch. 367 § 1, 10.01.200.

1. General Applicability and Requirements: Because this crime involves a sex offense or kidnapping offense involving a minor as defined in RCW 9A.44.128, you are required to register.

If you are a resident of Washington, you must register with the sheriff of the county of the state of Washington where you reside. You must register within three business days of being sentenced unless you are in custody, in which case you must register at the time of your release with the person designated by the agency that has jurisdiction over you. You must also register within three business days of your release with the sheriff of the county of the state of Washington where you will be residing.

While in custody, if you are approved for partial confinement, you must register when you transfer to partial confinement with the person designated by the agency that has jurisdiction over you. You must also register within three business days from the end of partial confinement or release from confinement with the sheriff of the county where you reside.

If you are not a resident of Washington but you are a student in Washington or you are employed in Washington or you carry on a vocation in Washington, you must register with the sheriff of the county of your school, place of employment, or vocation. You must register within three business days of being sentenced unless you are in custody, in which case you must register at the time of your release with the person designated by the agency that has jurisdiction over you. You must also register within three business days of your release with the sheriff of the county of your school, where you are employed, or where you carry on a vocation.

2. Offenders Who are New Residents, Temporary Residents, or Returning Washington Residents: If you move to Washington or if you leave this state following your sentencing or release from custody but later move back to Washington, you must register within three business days after moving to this state. If you leave this state following your sentencing or release from custody but later while not a resident of Washington you become employed in Washington, carry on a vocation in Washington, or attend school in Washington, you must register within three business days after starting school in this state or becoming employed or carrying out a vocation in this state. If you are visiting and intend to reside or be present 10 or more days in Washington, then you must register the location where you plan to stay or your temporary address with the sheriff of each county where you will be staying within three business days of your arrival.

3. Change of Residence Within State: If you change your residence within a county, you must provide, by certified mail, with return receipt requested or in person, signed written notice of your change of residence to the sheriff within three business days of moving. If you change your residence to a new county within this state, you must register with the sheriff of the new county within three business days of moving. Also within three business days, you must provide, by certified mail, with return receipt requested or in person, signed written notice of your change of address to the sheriff of the county where you last registered.

4. Leaving the State or Moving to Another State: If you move to another state, or if you work, carry on a vocation, or attend school in another state you must register a new address, fingerprints, and photograph with the new state within three business days after establishing residence, or after beginning to work, carry on a vocation, or attend school in the new state. If you move out of the state, you must also send written notice within three business days of moving to the new state or to a foreign country to the county sheriff with whom you last registered in Washington State.

5. Travel Outside the United States: If you intend to travel outside the United States, you must provide signed written notice of the details of your plan to travel out of the country to the sheriff of the county where you are registered. Notice must be provided at least 21 days before you travel. Notice may be provided to the sheriff by certified mail, with return receipt requested, or in person.

If you cancel or postpone this travel, you must notify the sheriff within three days of canceling or postponing your travel or on the departure date you provide in your notice, whichever is earlier.

If you travel routinely across international borders for work, or if you must travel unexpectedly due to a family or work emergency, you must personally notify the sheriff at least 24 hours before you travel. You must explain to the sheriff in writing why it is impractical for you to comply with the notice required by RCW 9A.44.130(3).

6. Notification Requirement When Enrolling In or Employed by a Public or Private Institution of Higher Education or Common School (K-12): You must give notice to the sheriff of the county where you are registered within three business days:

- i) before arriving at a school or institution of higher education to attend classes;
- ii) before starting work at an institution of higher education; or
- iii) after any termination of enrollment or employment at a school or institution of higher education.

7. Registration by a Person Who Does Not Have a Fixed Residence: Even if you do not have a fixed residence, you are required to register. Registration must occur within three business days of release in the county where you are being supervised if you do not have a residence at the time of your release from custody. Within three business days after losing your fixed residence, you must send signed written notice to the sheriff of the county where you last registered. If you enter a different county and stay there for more than 24 hours, you will be required to register with the sheriff of the new county not more than three business days after entering the new county. You must also report weekly in person to the sheriff of the county where you are registered. The weekly report shall be on a day specified by the county sheriff's office, and shall occur during normal business hours. You must keep an accurate accounting of where you stay during the week and provide it to the county sheriff upon request. The lack of a fixed residence is a factor that may be considered in determining an offender's risk level and shall make the offender subject to disclosure of information to the public at large pursuant to RCW 4.24.550.

8. Application for a Name Change: If you apply for a name change, you must submit a copy of the application to the county sheriff of the county of your residence and to the state patrol not fewer than five days before the entry of an order granting the name change. If you receive an order changing your name, you must submit a copy of the order to the county sheriff of the county of your residence and to the state patrol within three business days of the entry of the order. RCW 9A.44.130(7).

- 5.7 ☐ Department of Licensing Notice: The court finds that Count _____ is a felony in the commission of which a motor vehicle was used. Clerk's Action -The clerk shall forward an Abstract of Court Record (ACR) to the DOL, which must revoke the Defendant's driver's license. Voting Rights Statement: I acknowledge that I have lost my right to vote because of this felony conviction. If I am registered to vote, my voter registration will be cancelled.

My right to vote is provisionally restored as long as I am not under the authority of DOC (not serving a sentence of confinement in the custody of DOC and not subject to community custody as defined in RCW 9.94A.030). I must re-register before voting. The provisional right to vote may be revoked if I fail to comply with all the terms of my legal financial obligations or an agreement for the payment of legal financial obligations.

My right to vote may be permanently restored by one of the following for each felony conviction: a) a certificate of discharge issued by the sentencing court, RCW 9.94A.637; b) a court order issued by the sentencing court restoring the right, RCW 9.92.066; c) a final order of discharge issued by the indeterminate sentence review board, RCW 9.96.050; or d) a certificate of restoration issued by the governor, RCW 9.96.020. Voting before the right is restored is a class C felony, RCW 29A.84.660. Registering to vote before the right is restored is a class C felony, RCW 29A.84.140.

Greetings Jennifer.

Our office believes that the community custody imposed in the Judgment and Sentence is correct because Attempted Failure to Register as a Sex Offender with 2 or more priors is a class C sex offense under RCW 9.94A.030(47)(a)(iv) and/or (a)(v). Accordingly, community custody must be imposed. Please let me know if you desire any further clarification about our position.

Colin

Dear DPA Colin P. Hayes and Attorney Dustin D. Richardson,

THOMPSON's judgment and sentence was received by the Department on 4/7/17. Upon review, the Department discovered that the sentence requires clarification or correction.

Per RCW 9.94A.701 Count 1, ATTEMPTED FAILURE TO REGISTER AS A SEX OFFENDER is not eligible for community custody but 27.75 months of community custody was ordered.

We request that you please respond within fourteen days (By: 5/5/17). Please advise-as to whether the Prosecuting Attorney's Office agrees with the Department's analysis and will have the judgment and sentence amended. If your office disagrees and/or will not move for an amended judgment and sentence, please provide us a response by the above date as well. If we do not receive a response, we will assume that the Prosecuting Attorney's Office will not be moving for an amended judgment and sentence. In that case, the Department will refer this judgment and sentence along with any correspondence to the Attorney General's Office. The Attorney General's Office will then review the case and file a post sentence petition (PSP) in the court of appeals pursuant to RCW 9.94A.585(7).

The Attorney General's Office must file a post sentence petition within 90 days of actual notice of the error, so your timely response is appreciated by the Department of Corrections and the Attorney General's Office.

We are looking forward to hearing from you.

Respectfully,

Jennifer Broumley, CRT

RE: State v. Michael Paul Thompson
Clark County Superior Court Cause No. 17-1-00160-1

Dear Judge Gonzales, Mr. Hayes and Mr. Richardson:

The Washington Department of Corrections (DOC) respectfully requests that the Court vacate its September 16, 2015, orders directing the DOC to supervise Mr. Thompson under the judgment and sentence of the above cause. Statute prohibits DOC from supervising Mr. Thompson on this cause.

Mr. Thompson pleaded guilty to attempted failure to register as a sex offender, committed between November 11, 2016 and December 28, 2016. Per the judgment and sentence, Mr. Thompson has two prior convictions for failure to register. The Court ordered 27.75 months community custody. Following a review of under RCW 9.94A.030(47), RCW 9.94A.701 and RCW 9.94A.501, it seems that attempted failure to register is not a "sex offense" for which community custody is authorized. Moreover, failure to register is not treated the same as a completed failure to register. Therefore, community custody is not an authorized punishment for that offense.

The superior court may impose a term of community custody only where the statute authorizes the sentence. In re Leach, 161 Wn.2d 180, 184, 163 P.3d 782 (2007) (statute did not authorize community custody for attempted assault); In re Childers, 135 Wn. App. 37, 40, 143 P.3d 831

State v. Thompson

May 30, 2017

(2006) (statute did not authorize community custody for residential burglary); In re Jones, 129 Wn. App. 626, 630, 120 P.3d 84 (2005) (court could impose community custody only for crimes listed in the statute). Under RCW 9.94A.701, when the defendant is sentenced to custody of the Department of Corrections, the superior court may impose a term of community custody only for specified crimes. The two categories of crimes relevant here are:

- “a sex offense” RCW 9.94A.701(1)(a); and
- “a felony violation of RCW 9A.44.132(1) (failure to register) that is the offender’s first violation for a felony failure to register.” RCW 9.94A.701(3)(d).

Since the crime in this particular case is not the defendant’s first violation for a felony failure to register (Mr. Thompson has two prior convictions for failure to register), subsection (3)(d) expressly does not apply. In addition, as discussed in more detail below, since “attempted failure to register” is neither “a sex offense,” nor a “violation of RCW 9A.44.132(1),” regardless of the number of prior convictions for failure to register, subsections (1)(a) and (3)(d) do not apply. Therefore, RCW 9.94A.701 does not authorize the superior court to impose a term of community custody for the crime of “attempted failure to register.”

RCW 9.94A.501(6) expressly states, “The department is not authorized to, and may not, supervise any offender sentenced to a term of community custody or any probationer unless the offender or probationer is one for whom supervision is required under this section” Thus, if the offender and offense is not one listed in RCW 9.94A.501, the Department may not supervise the offender even though the superior court has imposed a term of community custody.

Thus, whether RCW 9.94A.501 authorizes the Department to supervise the defendant in this case depends upon whether “attempted failure to register” is a misdemeanor violation of RCW 9A.44.132(2), a felony violation of RCW 9A.44.132(1), or a felony sex offense, or upon whether the offender is classified as a high risk to reoffend. If “attempted failure to register” is not any one of those categories of crimes, and the offender is not a high risk, RCW 9.94A.501 does not authorize supervision.

First, the “attempted failure to register” at issue in this case does not appear to be a misdemeanor failure to register under RCW 9A.44.132(2) because Mr. Thompson has two prior convictions for felony failure to register. Second, the crime of “attempted failure to register” does not constitute a conviction for “violating RCW 9A.44.132(1)” because the attempt is an anticipatory crime, and not the completed crime. The Washington Supreme Court has held that an inchoate or anticipatory offense (attempt, solicitation, conspiracy) is not the same as a violation of the completed crime. See In re Hopkins, 137 Wn.2d 897, 976 P.2d 616 (1999); In re Leach, 161 Wn.2d 180, 163 P.3d 782 (2007). Consequently, RCW 9.94A.501(4)(d) does not appear to apply, and this part of the statute does not appear to authorize the Department to supervise the defendant in this case.

State v. Thompson

In Hopkins, the Washington Supreme Court considered an analogous issue of whether a conviction for “solicitation to deliver cocaine” constituted “an offense under RCW 69.50” so as to double the statutory maximum sentence. Hopkins, 137 Wn.2d at 899-900. The court held the anticipatory offense of “solicitation” to deliver cocaine was not a violation under the drug statute but was instead a violation under RCW 9A.28.010. Id.

In Leach, the Washington Supreme Court applied reasoning similar to Hopkins, and expressly held that an attempted crime is not the same as the completed crime for purposes of deciding whether a statute authorized community custody. The Washington Supreme Court held that although the crime of assault was a “crime against persons” authorizing the superior court to impose a term of community custody under former RCW 9.94A.715, the crime of “attempted assault” was not a “crime against persons,” and did not authorize a term of community custody under the statute. Leach, 161 Wn.2d at 184-88. The Washington Supreme Court noted that the Legislature had expressly included certain attempted crimes as eligible for community custody (e.g., attempted class A felonies in former RCW 9.94A.715 and attempted drug offenses in former RCW 9.94A.545), but had omitted other types of attempted crimes. Id.

As in Leach, both the community custody statute applicable here, RCW 9.94A.701, and the statute authorizing the Department to supervise community custody, RCW 9.94A.501, include the completed crime of failure to register. However, neither statute expressly includes the anticipatory crime of “attempted failure to register.” The absence of the anticipatory crime of “attempted failure to register” indicates the Legislature did not intend to include this particular attempted crime. This exclusion is especially apparent since the Legislature did specifically authorize community custody for other types of attempted crimes. See, e.g., RCW 9.94A.702(1)(d) (authorizing community custody for an attempted drug crime). Since RCW 9.94A.501 does not include the anticipatory crime of “attempted failure to register,” this part of the statute does not authorize the Department to supervise an offender convicted of “attempted failure to register” even though the Department may supervise an offender convicted of the completed crime of “failure to register.”

Second, the crime of “attempted failure to register” is not a “sex offense” for purposes of chapter 9.94A RCW. Consequently, RCW 9.94A.501(4)(a) does not authorize the Department to supervise the offender for “attempted failure to register.”

The relevant parts of RCW 9.94A.030(47) defines a “sex offense” as follows:

- (a)(i) A felony that is a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW other than RCW 9A.44.132;
- (ii) A violation of RCW 9A.64.020;

(iii) A felony that is a violation of chapter 9.68A RCW other than RCW 9.68A.080;

(iv) A felony that is, under chapter 9A.28 RCW, a criminal attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit such crimes; or

(v) A felony violation of RCW 9A.44.132(1) (failure to register as a sex offender) if the person has been convicted of violating RCW 9A.44.132(1) (failure to register as a sex offender) or 9A.44.130 prior to June 10, 2010, on at least one prior occasion;

Thus, while a completed offense for failure to register, with a prior, may meet the criteria for a sex offense, attempted failure to register does not. While the statute includes “attempts” for “such crimes” listed in RCW 9.94A.030(47)(a)(i) through (iii), the crime of failure to register by itself is not “such crimes.” The completed crime of felony failure to register becomes a sex offense only where the defendant has a prior conviction for failure to register. RCW 9.94A.030(47)(a)(v). While the statute includes “attempts” for the completed crimes listed in subsections (a)(i), (a)(ii), and a(iii), the statute does not similarly include “attempts” for “failure to register” in subsection (a)(v). The subsection for “attempted” crimes comes before the subsection for felony failure to register with a prior conviction. Compare RCW 9.94A.030(47)(a)(iv) and (v). The statute does not include “attempted failure to register” as a sex offense. Because the “attempted” version of the crime is absent, the “attempted” version of the crime is not a sex offense. See In re Hopkins, 137 Wn.2d 897, 976 P.2d 616 (1999) and In re Leach, 161 Wn.2d 180, 184-85, 163 P.3d 782 (2007), supra.

Although the Legislature declared the attempted version of several “such crimes” were sex offenses, the Legislature did not make “attempted failure to register” a sex offense. Consequently, RCW 9.94A.501(4)(a) does not authorize the Department to supervise the offender for this attempted crime.

Under the post-sentence petition process in RCW 9.94A.585(7), the Department of Corrections is required to first contact the sentencing court in an attempt to resolve any perceived sentencing errors. In almost all cases, the Department is bound by the plain language of a judgment and sentence, even if legally flawed. See In re Davis, 67 Wn. App. 1, 9, 834 P.2d 92 (1992).

Good afternoon – I wanted to follow up regarding correspondence mailed out pertaining to Mr. Thompson's judgment and sentence. Mr. Thompson was sentenced to community custody supervised by the Department for his conviction for attempted failure to register as a sex offender. It does not appear that statute allows the Department to supervise Mr. Thompson for this offense.

If you agree with the analysis discussed in the letter (attached), please respond and let me know when you anticipate you will be able to file a motion and order modifying the J & S. If you disagree, please respond so that the Department and the AGO may proceed with the post sentence petition process. If you disagree or are uncertain about what your position will be, I am happy to take a second look with your analysis in mind. Please respond regardless of whether you agree or disagree.

Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions or if I can be of assistance to help resolve this short of filing with the Court of Appeals. The deadline for filing a post-sentence petition is July 6, 2017. If I do not hear from the parties, I will begin the post-sentence petition process. I will notify you when the post-sentence petition is filed.

Greetings Mandy.

I have spoken about this with the defense attorney and we both take the position that the community custody imposed in the Judgment and Sentence is correct because Attempted Failure to Register as a Sex Offender with 2 or more priors is a class C sex offense under RCW 9.94A.030(47)(a)(iv) and/or (a)(v).
